WALKING WITH THE KING IN WORSHIP

"And I will walk among you, and I will be your God, and ye shall be my people."

Leviticus 26:12

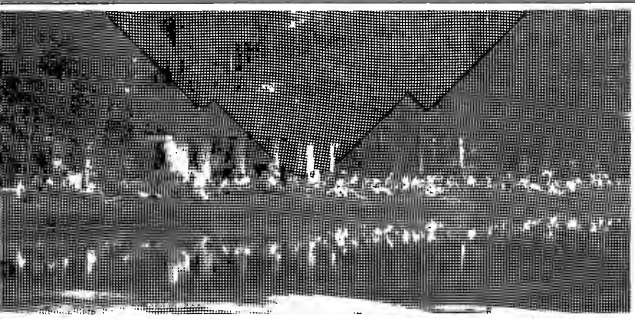

WALKING WITH THE KING ...

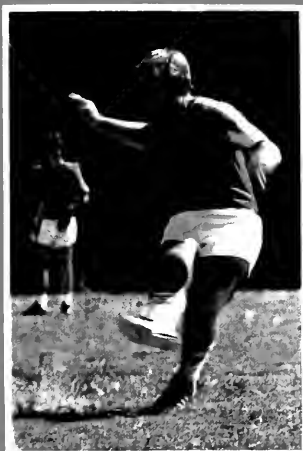

... IN FELLOWSHIP

"But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his son cleanseth us from all sin."

1 John 1:7

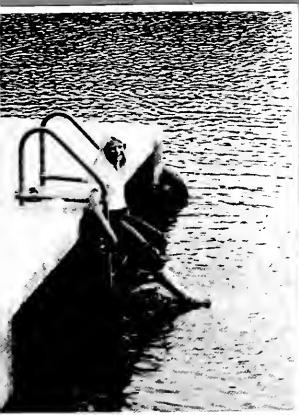

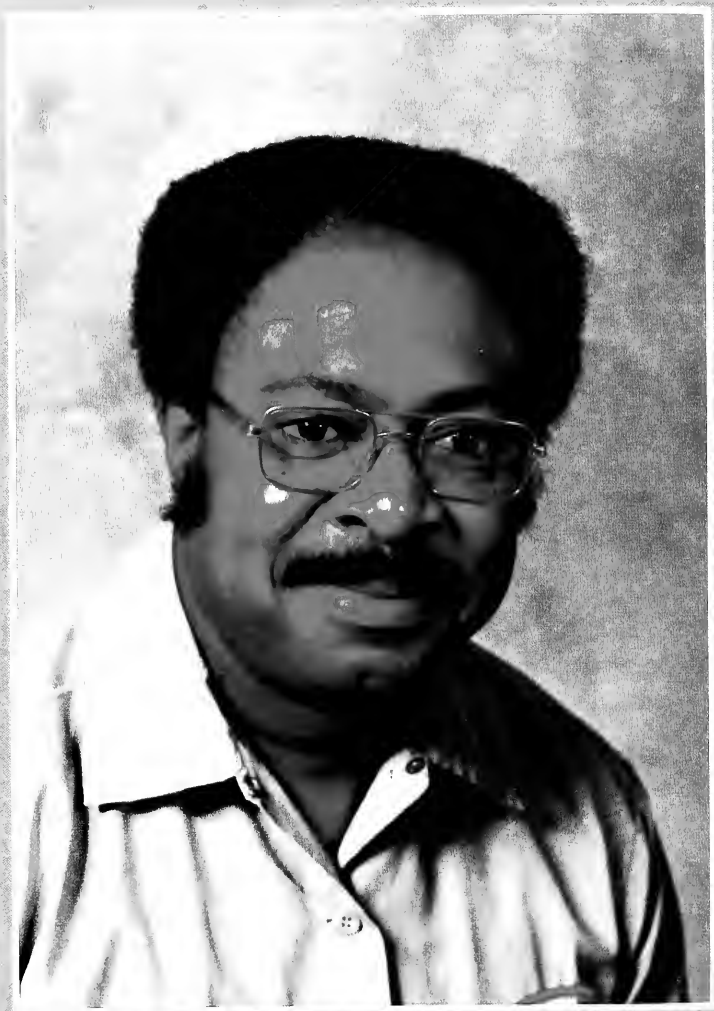

WALKING WITH THE KING ... IN LEISURE

"And walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweetsmelling savor."

Ephesians 5:2

1987 Dedication

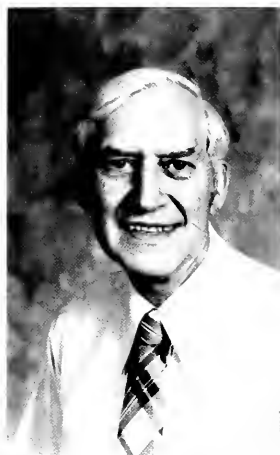

Theodore Warren

TWENTY- FIVE YEARS OF FAITHFUL SERVICE

For a quarter of a century, Theodore Warren has served his Lord and Columbia Bible College well. His steadfast testimony and willingness to faithfully serve others have been an encouragement to us all. His coworkers in the Physical Plant Department tell of the pleasure of working with him. The whole Bible College family joins the staff of the FINIAL in a grateful dedication of this year's book, with thanksgiving to the Lord Jesus.

With the Lord John Dunlap Board of Trustees

January 1987

Dear Friends:

John Dunlap, a dear friend and a great leader, passed away peacefully on January 15, 1987, at the age of 78. He was a man of great faith and a man of great love. He was a man who loved the Lord and who loved his fellow men.

And now, I, J. Robert McQuinn, Jr., now board chair, am distressed to see the loss of a man who so faithfully served the church with an unending devotion. But, my friend, John's presence will not be missed. I will miss his warm hand shaking mine with a warm smile. And he looked at things with a wisdom and a grace that I will never forget.

So on October 4 he gathered in the gym of Norfolk Christian High School to celebrate his 50th birthday. Death was not the curtain on the final act of a tragedy, but the beginning of an addition, the curtain being on his life forever.

Cancer killed him, yet by his faith he still speaks to us today. What a he saying! I've been hearing a testimony through recent months. My friend said a high tuition for me to learn. I want to learn well. I was a board member of CHS for 16 years. I was a pastor and a mighty man. But the greatest lesson he ever preached was the love of God and man.

As C.S. Lewis said, "God is God's megaphone." John Dunlap heard God. When I visited him in May, he told me:

"You know, Robertson, I'm not very spiritual. Gene talks about longing to be in heaven. But I love life. I have so much I want to do."

But when I visited him two months later, he didn't wait till I was seated in the hospital room.

"Robertson," he burst out, "I want to tell you something about death. It takes too long." He paused, then continued, "You probably have come the logical conclusion... but I don't."

"No, John, not really," I said, my mind probing for some ray of light. "But I do notice that you're homesick for heaven."

God designed the beauty and strength of youth to be eternal, but the beauty and strength of age to be of the soul. Yet so many cling to the one and in the end lose both. God faithfully, painfully, drew the real, eternal John Dunlap from clinging to the shell he was so strong and happy in.

The path of the righteous is not leading to sunset and the darkness of the tomb, but, as the Psalmist says, it is as a drawing light that grows brighter and brighter unto his daybreak. You got his attention. John was glad to go. He got our attention, too. Though we miss John Dunlap sorely, we prayed often for his release—a prayer we never would have dreamed six months before.

There is not only God's love here to make us listen, it is God's love that makes us listen. We didn't know all that was in John, but God knew he would pass the test. We knew he was courageous. But even a heist have been known to die courageously. Yet how we were filled with grateful awe to watch the gold of quiet patience and gentle thoughtfulness emerge from the fire. He never asked to be healed and instead of asking for release, just before he slipped into the last coma, he struggled to form the words of a whispered prayer: "Father, your blessed will be done." Many of us will never be the same for what we have seen or felt in the fire.

His physician, young in the faith, told his family, "I always thought a Christian should die like this. I just never have seen it."

As John Dunlap has joined the ranks of the witnesses we must remember him, follow his faith and run to win.

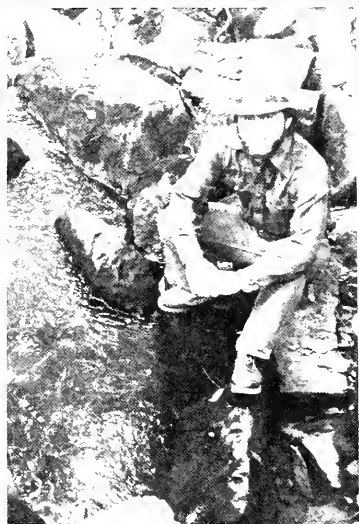

But he would scold me, "Robertson," he would say, "stop talking about me. I said the faith, it's the object of that faith—not away to Jesus." And so we shall. With gratitude. For life. And for death.

Grace and peace
